VALUABLE FARM AT PRIVATE SALE.

The undersigned, Executrix of the Will of JAMES TOWNSEND, deceased, in accordance with said Will, offers at Private Sale the valuable Farm on which she now resides, belonging to the heirs of James Townsend, situated in Reading township, Adams county, Pa., about 1½ miles north of Hampton, 4 miles from York Sulphur Springs and ½ mile from the Baltimore and Carlisle pike, containing 201 ACRES, more or less. This is commonly know as the "Old Round Hill Farm." It is mostly of the granite soil, has been heavily limed and manured, and is in a high state of cultivation. There are about 160 Acres of good farming land, and 40 Acres of good timber. The farm is well watered with springs and running water; a never-failing spring of excellent water about 25 yards from the door; also, another very large and strong spring about ¼ mile from the house, from which the water runs to the house continually, forced by a hydraulic Ram, which has been in successful operation for over twenty years. There is a barrel of excellent water standing in the kitchen all the time, suitable for cooking or washing. From the house the water is carried by lead pipe to a trough in the barn yard, thus furnishing plenty of water all the time for all the stock. The buildings are a large two-story STONE DWELLING HOUSE, a good sized Stone Barn, a large framed Stable with stabling for 6 horses; Hay Mows, Straw Shed, &c., Wagon Shed, Grain House, Machine House, Shop, Smoke House, Spring House, Hog House, and other necessary buildings—all under pine shingle roof.—There is a No. 1 Apple Orchard in good bearing order; also, Peaches, Pears, Plums, Cherries, &c., in abundance. This desirable farm is very conveniently located in regard to Churches, School Houses, Stores, Grist Mills, Saw Mills, Blacksmith Shops, &c.

All persons desirous of purchasing such a farm are respectfully invited to call and examine for themselves. They will find it as represented.—Terms easy and reasonable. A portion of the money can remain in the farm, if desired. There is no widow's dower in it, and title will be made free from all incumbrance.

Some very fine specimens of Magnetic Iron Ore have been found on the farm.

Any person desiring further information, (if it is not convenient for them to call,) may obtain it by letter by addressing

A RARE CHANCE FOR A VERY VALUABLE FARM AT PRIVATE SALE.

The undersigned offers at Private Sale a very VALUABLE FARM, situate in Tyrone township, Adams county, Pa., ¼ mile from Idaville, containing 100 ACRES of Patented Land, of which there are about 25 Acres in excellent Timber. The land is in a high state of cultivation and under the best of fencing, of which the greater part is post fencing. There have been upwards of 4000 bushels of lime put on the farm within the last four years. The soil is copper stone and it produces equal to lime stone. The improvements consist of a two-story STONE DWELLING HOUSE, a never-failing spring with Spring House convenient to the dwelling, frame and log Barn of 90 feet, containing Wagon Shed, Corn Crib, Hog Pen, and all other necessary outbuildings.—There is also a Peach Orchard containing 1200 choice trees in prime bearing; also, a young Apple Orchard containing 220 of the choicest of trees coming into bearing; also, an old Apple Orchard, and small fruits in abundance, consisting of Cherries, Pears, Grapes, Plums, &c. The land cannot be suspassed for raising fruit. The farm cannot be surpassed in the County for water.—There are two small streams running through the farm, and never-failing springs of the best of water in every field on the farm, but one. Post Office, Store, Mills of all descriptions, Churches, and School House all convenient.

☞The lime kilns are within 4 miles of the farm, and Hunter's Run Warehouse is within 5 miles. Two trips can be made a day with the team to the Warehouse, which always pays the highest prices for grain.

☞Persons wishing to buy should not fail to examine the above property.

Medical.

Baltimore Lock Hospital.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Physician of this celebrated Institution, has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, Pleasant and Effectual Remedy in the World for all

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE,

Weakness of the Back, or Limbs, Strictures, Affections of the Kidneys, or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—SECRET and solitary practices, more fatal to their victims, than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes, or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN

especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency,) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other disqualification, speedily relieved.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidentially rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS,
IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF POWER,

Immediately Cured, and Full Vigor Restored.

This distressing affection—which renders life miserable and marriage impossible—is the penalty paid by the victims of improper indulgences.—Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny, that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits, than by the prudent? Beside being deprived of the pleasures of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The system becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Cough, Consumption, Decay and Death.

A CURE WARRANTED IN TWO DAYS.
Relief in Six Hours! No Mercury!

Persons Ruined by Ignorant, Trifling Pretenders, and their Deadly Poisons, should apply immediately.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London. Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgences and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects of the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emicated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed to despair, and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to that undiscovered country, "from whence no traveler returns."

It is a melancholy fact, that thousands DIE victims to this terrible disease, through falling into the hands of Ignorant or Unskillful PRETENDERS, who by the use of that deadly Poison, Mercury, &c., destroy the constitution, and incapable of curing, keep the unhappy sufferer month after month taking their noxious or injurious compounds, and instead of being restored to a renewal of Life, Vigor and happiness, in despair leave him with ruined Health, to sigh over his galling disappointment.

To such, therefore, Dr. JOHNSTON pledges himself to preserve the most Inviolable Secrecy, and from his extensive practice and observations in the great Hospitals of Europe, and the first in this country, viz: England, France, Philadelphia and elsewhere, is enabled to offer the most Speedy, Certain and Effectual Remedy in the World for all diseases of Imprudence.

DR. JOHNSTON,
OFFICE, 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET,
BALTIMORE, MD.,

left hand side going from Baltimore street, a few doors from the corner. Fail not to observe the name and number.

☞No letters received unless postpaid and containing a stamp to be used on the reply. Persons writing should state age, and send a portion of advertisement describing symptoms.

There are so many Paltry, Designing and Worthless Imposters advertising themselves as Physicians, trifling with and ruining the health of all who unfortunately fall into their power, that Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say especially to those unacquainted with his reputation, that his Credentials or Diplomas always hang in his office.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this Establishment, year after year, and the numerous Surgical Operations performed by Dr. Johnston witnessed by the representatives of the press and many other persons, notices of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a gentleman of character and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints.—Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them.—While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the Ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

The Star and Sentinel.

THE BATTLE OF BLENHEIM.

Southey's famous "Battle of Blenheim" has doubtless occurred to many persons within the last week, who will be glad to see it repeated.—The future Kaspar, however, will be able to tell what the great war of 1870 was about, when he recalls the wasted country by many thousand bodies that lay rotting, in the sun after the great victory. The little Peterkin will learn that it was because a Prussian King spoke disrespectful to a French Embassador.

It was a summer evening,
Old Kaspar's work was done,
And he before his cottage door
Was sitting in the sun;
And by him sported on the green
His little grandchild Wilhemine.

She saw her brother Peterkin
Roll something large and round,
Which he beside the rivulet,
In playing there he found;
He came to ask what he had found
That was so large, and smooth and round.

Old Kaspar took it from the boy,
Who stood expectant by;
And then the old man shook his head,
And with a natural sigh—
"'Tis some poor fellow's skull," said he,
"Who fell in the great victory."

"I find them in the garden,
For there's many hereabouts;
And often when I go to plow,
The plowshare turns them out;
For many thousand men," said he,
"Were slain in the great victory."

"Now tell us what 'twas all about,"
Young Peterkin he cries;
And little Wilhemine looks up
With wonder-waiting eyes—
"Now tell us all about the war,
And what they fought each other for."

"It was the English," Kaspar cried,
"Who put the French to route;
But what they fought each other for,
I could not well make out;
But everybody said," quoth he,
"That 'twas a famous victory.

"My father lived at Blenheim then,
Yon little stream hard by;
They burned his dwelling to the ground,
And he was forced to fly;
So with his wife and child he fled,
Nor had he were to rest his head.

"With fire and sword the country round
Was wasted far and wide,
And many a childeing mother there,
And new-born baby died;
But things like that, you know, must be
At every famous victory.

"They say it was a schocking sight,
After the field was won—
For many thousand bodies here
Lay rotting in the sun;
But things like that, you know, must be
After a famous victory.

"Great praise the Duke of Marlboro' won,
And our good Prince Eugene."
"Why, 'twas a very wicked thing!"
Said little Wilhemine.
"Nay—nay—my little girl!" quoth he;
It was a famous victory.

"And everybody praised the Duke,
Who this great fight did win."
"But what good came of it at last?"
Quoth little Peterkin.
"Why, that I can not tell," said he,
"But, 'twas a famous victory."

"WE'LL SEE ABOUT IT."

From this simple sentence, "we'll see about!" has arisen more evil to Ireland than any person, ignorant of the strange union of impetuousity and procrastination my countrymen exhibit, could well believe. They are sufficiently prompt and energetic where their feelings are concerned; but in matters of business, they almost invariably prefer seeing about, to DOING.

I shall not find it difficult to illustrate this observation; from the many examples of its truth, in high and in low life, I select Philip Garraty.

Philip, and Philip's wife, and Philip's children, and all the house of Garraty, are employed from morning till night in seeing about everything, and, consequently, in doing nothing. There is Philip—a tall, handsome, good-natured fellow, of about five-and-thirty, with broad, lazy-looking shoulders, and a smile perpetually lurking about his mouth, or in his bright hazel eyes, the picture of indolence and kindly feeling. There he is, leaning over what was once a five-barred gate, and leads to the hag-yard; his blue worsted stockings full of holes, which "the suggan," twisted half-way up the well-formed leg, fails to conceal; while his brogues, (to use his own words,) if they do let the water in, let it out again. With what unstudied elegance does he roll that knotted twine, and then unroll it; varying his occupation by kicking the stones that once formed a wall, into a stagnant pool, scarcely big enough for full-grown ducks to sail in.

But let us take a survey of the premises.

The dwelling-house is a long rambling abode, much larger than the generality of those that fall to the lot of small Irish farmers; for Philip rents a respectable farm, and ought to be "well to do in the world." The dwelling looks very comfortless, notwithstanding; part of the thatch is much decayed, and the rank weeds and damp moss nearly cover it; the door-posts are only united to the wall by a few scattered portions of clay and stone, and the door itself is hanging but by one hinge; the window-frames shake in the passing wind, and some of the compartments are stuffed with the crown of a hat, or a "lock of straw;" very unsightly objects. At the opposite side of the swamp is the hag-yard gate, where a broken line of alternate palings and wall betokens that it had been formerly fenced in: the commodious barn is almost roofless, and the other sheds pretty much in the same condition; the pig-sty is deserted by the grubbing lady and her grunting progeny, who are too fond of an occasional repast in the once-cultivated garden to remain in their proper abode; the listless turkeys, and, contented, half-fatted geese, live at large and on the public; but the turkeys, with all their shyness and modesty, have the best of it, for they mount the ill-built stacks, and select the grain a plaisir.

"Give you good morrow, Mr. Philip; we have had showery weather lately."

"Och, all manner o' joy to ye, my lady!—and sure ye'll walk in, and sit down; my woman will be proud to see ye. I'm sartin we'll have the rain soon agin; for it's everywhere, like bad luck; and my throat's sore wild hurishing thim pigs out o' the garden—sorra a thing else can I do all the day for watching thim."

"Why do you not mend the door of the sty?"

"True for ye, ma'am dear; so I would if I had the nails; and I've been threat'ning to step down to Mikey Bow, the smith, to ask him to see about it."

"I hear you've had a fine crop of wheat, Philip."

"Thank God for all things! You may say that; we had, my lady, a fine crop; but I have always the hight of ill luck somehow; upon my sowins (and that's the hardest oath I ever swear), the turkeys have had the most of it; but I mean to see about setting it up safe, to-morrow."

"But, Philip, I thought you had sold the wheat, standing."

"It was all one as sould; only it's a bad world, ma'am dear, and I've no luck. Says the steward to me, says he, I like to do things like a man of business; so, Mister Garraty, just draw up a bit of an agreement that you deliver over the wheat-field on such a day, standing as it is, for such a sum, and I'll sign it for ye, and thin there can be no mistake—only let me have it by this day a week. Well, to be sure, I came home full o' my good luck, and I tould the wife; and on the strength of it, she must have a new gown. And sure, says she, Miss Hennessy is just come from Dublin, wid a shop-full of goods; and, on account that she's my brother's sister-in-law's first cousin, she'll let me have the first sight o' the things, and I can take my pick, and we'll have plinty of time to see about the agreement to-morrow. Well, I don't know how it was, but the next day we had no paper, nor ink, nor pens in the house; I meant to send the gossoon to Miss Hennessy's for all—but forgot the pens. So, when I was seeing about the 'greement, I bethought of the ould gander; and while I was pulling as beautiful a pen as ever ye laid yer two eyes upon, out of his wing, he tattered my hand with his bill in such a manner that sorra a pen I could hould for three days. Well, at last I wrote it out like print, and takes it myself to the steward. Good evening to you, Mr. Garraty, says he, Good evening kindly, sir, says I; I've got the 'greement here, says I, pulling it out, as I thought—but—I only cotch the paper it was in, to keep it from the dirt of the tobacco, that was loose in my pocket for want of a box; so I turned out what little o' things I had in it, and there was a grate hole that ye might drive all the parish rats through at the bottom, which the wife promised to see about mending as good as six months' before. Well, I saw the sneer of his ugly mouth (for he's an Englishman,) and I turned it off with a laugh, and said air holes were comfortable in hot weather, and sich-like jokes, and that I'd go home and make another 'greement. 'Greement! for what?—says he, laying down his grate outlandish pipe. Whew! may-be ye don't know, says I. Not I, says he. The wheat-field, says I. Why, says he, didn't I tell you then, that you must bring the 'greement to me that day a week?—and that was (by the same token pulling a red memorandum book out of his pocket,) let me see—exactly this day three weeks. Do you think, Mr. Garraty, he goes on, that I was going to wait upon you? I don't lose my papers in the Irish fashion. Well, that last set me up—and I had the ill luck to knock him down; and, the coward, what does he do but takes the law o' me—and I was cast, and lost the sale of the wheat, and was ordered to pay ever so much money: well, I didn't care to pay it then, but gave an engagement; and I meant to see about it—but forgot; and, all in a jiffy, came a thing they call an execution—and to stop the cant, I was forced to borrow money from the tame negur, the exciseman—and it's a terrible case to be paying interest for it still."

"But, Philip, you might give up or dispose of a part of your farm. I know you could get a good sum of money for that rich meadow by the river."

"True, for ye, ma'am dear, and I've been seeing about it for a long time, but somehow I have no luck. Just as ye came up, I was thinking to myself that the gale-day is passed, and all one as before; yarra a pin's worth have I for the rint; and the landlord wants it as bad as I do, though it's a shame to say that of a gentleman; for, jist as he was seeing about some old costodium, or something of the sort, that had been hanging over the estate ever since he came to it, the sheriff's officers put executioners in the house; and I am sartin he'll be racking me for the money; indeed the ould huntsman tould me as much; but I must see about it: not, indeed, that it's much good, for I have no luck."

"Let me beg of you, Philip, not to take such an idea into your head; do not lose a moment: you will be utterly ruined if you do. Why not apply to your father-in-law?—he is able to assist you; for at present you only suffer from temporary embarrassment."

"True for ye, my lady; and, by the blessing of God, I'll see about it."

"Then go directly, Philip."

"Directly! I can't, ma'am dear, on account of the pigs; and sorra a one I have but myself to keep them out of the cabbages; for I let the woman and the grawls go to the pattern at Killaum; its little pleasure they see, the cratures!"

"But your wife did not hear the huntsman's story?"

"Och! ay did she; but, unless she could give me a sheaf o' bank notes, where would be the good of her staying?—but I'll see about it."

"Immediately, then, Philip; think upon the ruin that may come—nay, that must come if you neglect this matter; your wife, too—your family reduced from comfort to starvation—your home desolate—"

"Aisy, my lady!—don't be after breaking my heart intirely; thank God, I have seven as fine flahulagh children as ever peeled pratee, and all under twelve years ould; and sure I'd lay down my life ten times over for every o' them; and to-morrow for sartin—no—to-morrow—the ourling; I can't to-morrow; but the day after, if I'm a living man, I'll see about it."

Poor Philip! his kindly feelings were valueless, because of his unfortunate habit. Would that this were the only example I could produce of the ill effects of that dangerous little sentence—"I'll see about it!" Oh, that the sons and daughters of the fairest island that ever heaved its green bosom above the surface of the ocean, would arise and be doing what is to be done, and never again rest contented with "SEEING ABOUT IT!"—Mrs. Hall.

IT is no sin not to be well up in the classics. 'Liakim Dutton was not. But he loved the American fair. In fact he loved two of them. Those two felt emotions of love toward 'Liakim. And they quarreled about him like two Kilkenny pussies. Consequence was, all three were brought into court. 'Liakim, being the cause of the struggle, was thus addressed by his Honor:

"And so these women were fighting about you?"

"I believe so Sir."

"You are a sort of an Adonis, then?"

"Sir" inquired 'Liakim, his eyes protruding, and a shade of pallor creeping into his face.

"You are an Adonis," the court repeated.

"Oh no, Sir—never as bad as that; but I've been in the penitentiary for stealing horses."

A WOMAN applied to a magistrate for a summons against a neighbor. "She called me a thief, your, worship. Can't I make her prove it?" "No doubt you could," said the magistrate, "but you had better not."

HUMORS OF TRAVEL.

A correspondent of an eastern paper traveling from St. Louis to Chicago, relates the following capital story, which sportsmen will keenly appreciate:

We passed through one of the most productive farming countries on our way to Chicago that I have ever seen. Everything is done on the largest scale. Vast fields of corn, stretching almost as far as the eye can reach, surround you and give you a faint idea of the immense agricultural resources of this country. The people are slightly inquisitive, but then this is Yankee land. An old fellow who sat beside me eyed Mrs. L. and a blooming young damsel who happened to be occupying the seat with her, for some time. Finally he turned to me and inquired:

"You bean't a Morman, be you?"

I assured him I was not.

"I didn't know," said he, "I seed you had two gals."

I laughed.

"Daughter?" said he.

I looked like a father.

"Now, do you know," said he, "I think the gal favors you more than she does the old woman."

Old woman! I glanced at Mrs. L.; she was chewing her parasol handle to bits, in her efforts to surpress her anger. Mrs. L., the buxom girl! It was hard, I admit. My inquisitive friend turned out to be a very jolly fellow, and told me some tall stories about game in that region, only one of which I dare offer to you.

"I s'pose stranger you never seed my horse, Jim?" said he.

I concluded that I had not.

"Well I s'pose not," he said. "That horse is just the biggest thing in this State."

I asked what his qualities were.

"Well, now, stranger," continued he, "I'll tell you. You see, I shoot a tremendous pile of game in a year. I used to go out on the prairie with that ere horse and a setter-dog, which I owned, and fetch down a few birds, I tell you."

I expressed my approval of his remarks, and he continued:

"Well, one day, you know, I just lent my setter to Bill Smith, but towards afternoon I just thought I'd ride out and see if I could get a little game without a dog. Well, we rode along nicely for a bit, when, all of a sudden, Jim stopped and pricked up his ears, then he kinder looked around for the dog, and, when he didn't see no dog, he just sat down on his hindquarters as flat as a pie, and rolled off onto the grass. Well, I jumped up just in time to fetch down a couple of birds out of the flock which had risen, and then went and picked them up. But, sure as you're alive, stranger, when I came back there that horse sat and he wouldn't get up neither, till I held those birds to his nose and he smelled that they were fresh. After that I never took a dog you bet. That ere horse had learned the trick, and was just as good as a dog. One day he kinder stuck me, though. You see, I didn't kill, and the horse wouldn't get up unless he smelled the birds, and if a friend hadn't come along and lent me some birds, I believe that horse would be setting there yet."

My inquisitive friend looked at me, when he had finished his recital, and then: added

"You kinder look, Mister, as if you didn't believe it. Well, I wouldn't have believed it myself if I hadn't seen it."

"What became of the horse?" queried I.

"Well, you see, he wasn't brought up to the work early, and he got to setting whenever a crow or pigeon came near him, and he dumped me into the dirt two or three times when I was going to meeting, and I had to sell him to Bill Smith. Good-by, stranger, here's my station."

"I say, my friend, what does Bill Smith do with him?" inquired I.

"Well," replied he, "hangs a prairie hen from the ceiling of his barn, and uses that horse to hatch eggs. But if that ere horse ever gets a smell of that ere hen, and finds it ain't fresh, he wont set long on them eggs, you bet. Good-by, stranger," and he departed.

THE long drought of this summer recalls some of the quaint, and, as we should think, in these days, over familiar, expressions of our fathers when praying for rain. In 1821 a genial company were travelling in a stage-coach from Albany to Niagara falls, Rev. Jedediah Morse, Hon. Edward Everett, Colonel T. H. Perkins and Chandler Starr, Esq., with Mrs. Starr, made up the party. The dry weather of that season called from Mr. Morse the following anecdote: A Cape Cod clergyman one Sabbath had prayed most earnestly for rain. He entreated the Lord to "uncork the bottles of Heaven and send down the refreshing showers." The drought had lasted through August and a part of September. Tuesday morning the fine storm began, and continued with great violence till Friday, flooding the country and sweeping off bridges in all directions. Saturday night it set in to rain again, and Sabbath morning it was still pouring down. This time the prayer was as follows: "O Lord, we recently took occasion to entreat Thee to uncork the bottles of Heaven and send down the refreshing showers, but we did not mean that the cork should be thrown away." Mr. Starr followed with a story of "Parson Howe," of Milton, Conn. On a similar occasion, if not during the same drought, he petitioned for relief in these words "O Lord, we want rain very much. The rye is suffering prodigiously. Of corn, we shall not half a crop. As for the potatoes, it is all up with them; and there's the grass of Deacon Comstock's, it is as red as a fox's tail."—Congregationalist.

IS YOUR NAME BROWN?—Captain—— tells an amusing occurrence witnessed by him on board a foreign steamer. A gentleman most distinguished in manners, and formerly as great in diplomacy, was pacing up and down the saloon, when he suddenly stopped in front of a large, full-length mirror, and, after gazing at the figure presented for a moment or two, inquired, in a very pleasant and affable tone;

"Is your name Brown?"

No answered. Queston repeated louder;

"Is your name Brown?"

No answer.

"Well," said the questioner, "you are either no gentleman or very deaf."

The saloon was in a roar.

A director in one of our orphan asylums mentions the following:

Last Christmas the directors assembled at the asylum to witness the effect upon the little people of old Santa Claus's visit.

Among them was a bright-eyed boy, whose present was a pair of copper-toed boots—a long-desired present, truly; yet a shade of further longing hung upon his face. Finally, with some hesitancy, he approched the matron and asked:

"Mayn't I kick Joe just once?"

Alas, that that final joy should have been denied the youngster!

DEMOCRATIC MULTIPLICATION.

It has been charged that the State of New York is now in the hands of the Democratic party, by reason of gross frauds upon the ballot-box in the chief city of that State. There has been no doubt, indeed, in the minds of intelligent men, that the political crimes of the ruling party in the greatest city of our country have been fearfully and wonderfully gross and outrageous. That they have been endured by the honest citizens of the city—that a Vigilance Committee has not long been formed by an indignant populace, and the rascals sent whirling through neighboring Hell Gate to where they belong, is a wonder passing strange to men of spirit in all other parts of the country.

And yet there are a good many people who think all that is said about New York political swindling and misgovernment is an "abolition lie." Fortunately, there are facts and figures which demonstrate the truth of the charges made against Democracy with absolute conclusiveness.—Every one knows there are not so many voters in any community as there are inhabitants. Women and children and unnaturalized foreigners have no right to vote. Many citizens having the right do not exercise it. Hence the generally accepted rule is, that in rural districts the inhabitants exceed the voters by about five to one, and in large cities, where there are many foreigners, about seven to one.

If we apply this rule to New York city we shall discover the singular nature of Democratic multiplication. There was a city election in New York, it will be recollected, last May, which resulted in a great Democratic triumph. Since then, the census has been taken in many of the districts, and it appears that in the strong Democratic precincts there are more voters than people, and in some four times as many. The following table for a number of the strong Democratic districts shows the vote in May, and the total population at the present time:

Election Districts.	Population. 1870.	Vote. May
Ninth ward, Fourth district	3,200	3,998
Ninth ward, Tenth district	2,600	4,028
Fifteenth ward, Fifth district	1,670	3,270
Seventh ward, Third district	3,472	6,859
Seventh ward, Fourth district	3,510	6,997
Seventeenth ward, Fourteenth district	3,000	5,160
Twenty-first ward, Seventh district	700	7,359
Tenth ward, Ninth district	500	4,001
First ward, Sixth district	957	3,012
Eighteenth ward, Sixth district	2,500	4,941
Totals	22,499	47,615

Thus in strong Democratic districts we have twenty-two thousand people, including men, women, boys, girls, infants, and unnaturalized foreigners casting forty-seven thousand votes! These Democrats have to vote early and vote often to accomplish such astounding and atrocious results. What is the sense in keeping the majority in New York city at a beggarly eighty thousand, when it might just as well be two or three hundred thousand, and no questions asked?—Chicago Post.

MORE VARIETY IN FOOD WANTED.—The farmer raises food for other people, but oftentimes does not cater wisely for himself. There is much just reflection upon farm life in that old miserly maxim, first uttered as a sarcasm: "Sell what you can; what you cannot sell, eat; what you cannot eat, give to the pigs." We do not believe that thrift lies in that direction. The producers of food are entitled to the best their farms afford, and in the long run this is the true economy. One secret of the strong drift of our farming population towards the city, lies in the farmers table. Children crave a variety of good, wholesome food, and enough of it; and any stint of it is certain to be remembered when they come to shift for themselves. The citizen always has a variety of food within his reach, and nothing but poverty prevents him from enjoying all that the farmer sends to market. He has all the fruits and vegetables in their season, and in the best condition in which he can get them. He has fish and flesh in great variety, and his appetite is never cloyed. But upon the farm, where the best of everything is produced, salt meats are too often the staple provisions the year round—and corn-meal cooked in some form makes perpetual feast. Now, there is no reason in the world why the farmer should not be the best fed man in the community. He ought to act as an advertiser of his business. A tailor, of all men, should not dress shabbily. Coarse, ill-fitting boots are a bad card for a shoemaker. The producer should show us how to cook and enjoy his production. Many farmers, we know, do give us this advertisement of their business. Their guests sometimes forget to come away when their visits are finished. But this is a less evil than a hospitality one is ashamed to offer, and which no one accepts a second time. The physical man should be kept in the best condition by a varied and generous diet, and the luxuries of the farm be made to culminate in the finest specimens of men and women it produces.

JUDGE Dowling has many a queer and ingenious rascal before him, but seldom one with more delicious coolness than was a young fellow, decently dressed who was arraigned for having stolen a watch. It was his first error, and he was ready to plead guilty. The Judge addressed him in very gentle tones, and asked him what had led him to commit the theft. The young man replied that, having been unwell for some, the doctor advised him to take something, which he had accordingly done. The Judge was rather pleased with the humor of the thing, and asked him what had led him to select a watch.

"Why," said the prisoner, "I thought if I only had the time that nature would work a cure!"

A WEALTHY farmer, while on his way to Kansas City with a load of wheat, the other day, had one of the wheels of his wagon broken. He stopped at the house of a buxom widow to have the repairs attended to, and while there took advantage of the opportunity to propose a consolidation of their farms and their hearts. The proposition was accepted, and within one week from the day of the accident, he carried home his bride in triumph.

A COLORED man recently applied to a prominent gentleman for a letter of recommendation, by means of which he hoped to obtain a situation. The man being well known to the gentleman in question, the testimonial was readily given. It was even more complimentary than Scipio had expected, and that worthy, on recovering from his astonishment, exclaimed: "Say, Mr. ——, won't you give me something to do on that recommendation?"

SPEAKING of the American's devotion to business, we have this;

A New-York merchant who for six years had left his home at 6 a. m. not returning until 8 p. m., after his children were in bed, was aroused on a Sunday afternoon from a nap on the sofa by the voice of a child crying out;

"Ma! ma! quick! there's a man in the dining room!"

Didn't know its own dad!

THE potatoe was found by Columbus on the island of Cuba during his first voyage of discovery. The natives used it as food after roasting in ashes. The Indians called it Batatas—hence our word potatoe. It was introduced into England by Sir Walter Raleigh. Tobacco was also found on the same island.

NOMINATION OF MR. CESSNA.

All the Counties in the Congressional District having declared for the re-nomination of Hon. JOHN CESSNA, a formal meeting of the Conferees was deemed unnecessary. The following document speaks for itself:

As the Republican County Conventions of a majority of the counties composing the sixteenth Congressional district, have expressed a preference for the nomination of the Honorable JOHN CESSNA, our present Representative, as the Republican candidate for Congress at the ensuing election—thereby making an actual conference and a formal vote unnecessary—the undersigned Conferees, duly appointed by the respective County Conventions to constitute a Congressional Conference to nominate a candidate, take this method of expressing their concurrence in the nomination of Hon. JOHN CESSNA, and earnestly recommend him to the voters of the district for re-election to the office which he now so worthily, faithfully and ably fills.

WM. KING,
PAUL HERSH,
JOHN M. KRAUTH.
Conferees from Adams county.
A. MC. L. CRAWFORD,
JOHN BOWERMASTER,
ABRAHAM E. LEHMAN.
Conferees from Franklin County.
WM. M. PATTERSON.
JOHN B. HOKE,
S. E. DUFFIELD.
Conferees from Fulton County.

Somerset and Bedford, having the Crawford county system, voted direct for candidates, and in both counties Mr. Cessna received a unanimous vote. This formally puts Mr. Cessna in the field as the unanimous choice of the Republicans of the 16th Congressional district. That he will be cordially supported and triumphantly elected, we have not the least shadow of a doubt.

ARE YOU REGISTERED?

The Registry lists have been completed, and alphabetical lists can be seen at the voting places. Republican voters should carefully examine this list, and see that no names are omitted either by accident or design. Every voter should attend to this for himself. If your name does not appear on the list, go to the Assessor at once and have him take your name. Otherwise your vote may be endangered.

$13,400,000 IN ONE MONTH.

The Secretary of the Treasury in his statement for Sept. 1, shows a decrease of the public debt for the month of August, amounting to the very large sum of $13,400,000. In this uniform reduction of the Public Debt, we have the best answer to the Copperhead arraignment of Grant's administration. While a Republican Congress steadily reduces the burden of taxation, a Republican Administration, operating through honest officials, steadily reduces the aggregate of Debt.

THE Copperhead papers call attention to the fact that there are three or four hundred defaulters to the United States, on the books of the Treasury Department.

They do not call attention to the other facts that nine-tenths of these defaulters are ex-officials of Andy Johnson's administration, and that nearly all are Democrats now.

They suppress the other fact, also, that Grant's administration is prosecuting all these defaulters, and collecting the amounts due from them, and their bail.

In our State, when under Democratic rule, we had a long list of Democratic defaulters; but who ever heard of a Democratic administration bringing them to justice? Johnson pursued the same policy of indifference. Grant is determined to collect the money; and the Copperheads howl! Of course. They don't like to see their friends disgorge!

THE Republicans of the adjoining district of Maryland, have nominated, as their candidate for Congress, Hon. JOHN E. SMITH, of Carroll county.—This nomination was harmoniously made, and the Republicans enter upon the canvass with a substantial certainty of success.

Judge SMITH is a graduate of Pennsylvania College—of the class of 1849—is an excellent lawyer, a liberal scholar, and a genial gentleman. He will bring to his exalted station first-rate ability, and a high sense of public duty. We predict for him an honorable and distinguished career—in which none will rejoice more heartily than his many College friends of this town and vicinity.

THE Democracy show a wonderful capacity for rolling up huge debts and high taxes, wherever they have a chance. They have shown their ability in this line in Adams county, and would like to try their hand in the National Administration. They tried it up to 1860—bankrupted the Treasury—demoralized the public service, and precipitated the nation into War and Rebellion. But that don't satisfy them.

IF you want an economical administration of the Government, with reduced taxes, and protection to American farmers and mechanics—vote for John Cessna. If you want mal-administration, Free-Trade, and a restoration of Rebels to power and place—vote for B. F. Meyers.

"ALL the correspondents in Europe report the German troops as furious with the French for bringing 'niggers' to fight them. The Turcos are odious because they are black.—Compiler."

And yet the Democratic press is almost a unit in denouncing Prussia, and support the French, "Turcos" and all.

UNDER Grant's administration we get lessened taxes and reduced debts. Under our County Democratic administration, we get both increased taxes and debt. Which does the tax-payer prefer?

THE Chambersburg Repository referring to the nomination of B. F. Meyers as the Democratic candidate for Congress, says:

"No other man in the District named in connection with this nomination could so truly represent the National Democratic party as Mr. Meyers. In the rebellion he was a friend of the confederate cause, and never hesitated to manifest as much sympathy with it as was consistent with personal safety. His most bitter disappointments during the war were those which came of the success of the loyal armies, and he did not conceal his satisfaction at their reverses and defeats. He has opposed every measure for the restoration of the Southern States inaugurated and carried out by a Republican administration and Congress. He denounced the Emancipation Proclamation of President Lincoln, the enfranchisement of the negroes of the rebel States, and the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment. He is the champion of the White Man's Party to-day, which denies the validity of that Amendment, and declares its determination to return the colored population to the condition of practical servitude if ever it should be restored to power. In all this, which neither Mr. Meyers, nor his friends deny, he does not much differ from the majority of the other Democratic leaders. But in one important particular he does differ vitally from a large body of the Democratic voters of the Sixteenth Congressional District. He is the avowed and earnest advocate of the pernicious Free Trade doctrines, which British gold and British influence are attempting to fasten upon the labor and industry of this country. He is the enemy of every laborer in the land, and would reduce the price of every workman's wages down to the low standard of wages in Europe.

Mr. Cessna's position and policy, in every respect, is in marked contrast to Mr. Meyers. An earnest, devoted friend of the government during the Rebellion, his voice never faltered and his zeal never flagged until armed treason had been stricken down; and since then he holds that the men who saved the Republic should rule it. He is also the firm friend of the great policy of protection to American industry. Mr. Meyers would remand the Government to Rebel domination—Mr. Cessna would keep it under the control of loyal men. Mr. Meyers would strike down American labor and throw open our ports to the competition of European pauper labor—Mr. Cessna would foster Home Industry, and build up a Home Market for American Agricural products. Let the people choose between them.

IT is a favorite charge of the Democrats against Hon. JOHN CESSNA, that he is a renegade Democrat. If there was anything in that form of argument, we might easily retort; for in BENJAMIN F. MEYERS, the Democratic candidate for Congress, they have a renegade Whig, and a renegade Know-Nothing! He belonged to both organizations, while a resident of Somerset county.—He became a Democrat when he removed to Bedford. We recently heard a Democrat say, that he was bought over by the editorship of the Bedford Gazette, which happened to become open to him at the moment.

Mr. CESSNA was a Democrat, till that party became, in his judgment, unfaithful to the Country, during the War.—He is now a thorough National Republican. He never was a Know-Nothing, but opposed that party stoutly. Mr. MEYERS, on the other hand, was a Whig till he had a chance to improve his condition by becoming a Democrat. And he was a Know-Nothing in Somerset, while he remained there. He is now an ultra Secession, Free-Trade, Revolutionary, Ku-Klux Democrat.

On this point, we clip this paragraph from the Somerset Herald of August 13:

"Born and raised in this county, Mr. Meyers is personally known to many of our citizens. He is a gentleman possessed of good ability, and an excellent personal character; a strong and ready writer, a rather heavy but sensible speaker, an adroit and hard working politician, and a bitter uncompromising partisan. First a Whig, then a Know-Nothing, afterwards an ultra pro-slavery, secession-tinctured—and now an exceedingly 'White Man' anti-protective-tariff—Democrat, he has a most abominable record, and with all his political sins upon his head, is in our judgment as a weak a candidate as could have been selected from among the honest men aspiring for the nomination. With harmonious and energetic work, we can beat him a thousand votes in this district."

HON. O. J. DICKEY has been renominated for Congress by the Republicans of Lancaster county, by a vote of two to one, over J. P. Wickersham, at present State Superintendent of Common Schools. Mr. Dickey, as the successor of Mr. Stevens, met with embarrassments such as few men in public life are called upon to encounter; but it is only just to say that he has steadily won upon the body, and now occupies a conspicuous and influential position in it. And the experience he has already acquired will aid him in extending his usefulness in the next Congress. His constituents did wisely for themselves, and well for the country, in determining to require his continued services. We say this without desiring to reflect in any manner upon the ability or character of his competitor; but solely for the reasons stated, and for the further one that those districts are the best served, and those interests the best protected, which are represented by men of parliamentary experience. This was long the source of Southern power in Congress. We are glad to see that the North are profiting by the example, and are manifesting a disposition to retain Representatives who have ability, industry and character sufficient to become a power in the respective bodies.

A FEW years ago, the Republican party repealed the State Tax of three mills on Real Estate. Then the County Tax was five mills. This reduction by the Republicans has been neutralized in this county by the Democratic increase of County Tax, to the precise amount of the former reduction—three mills.

What tends to aggravate the people under this enormous increase, is that no figures have ever been published by County officials showing how this increase became necessary; and the people are left wholly in the dark. Evidently, the "ring" think the people "have no rights"—except to pay what they impose.

We venture to say that no County in the State has been worse administered the last ten years, than Adams; and yet the impudent authors of this mismanagement refuse to make any explanations, or even a satisfactory statement of the amount of the County Debt.

THE Compiler don't like the nomination of Col. Myers for Assembly. Possibly not. Nor is it likely the Republican County Convention, in presenting his name, had any idea of satisfying our neighbor. The people, however, are likely to approve the nomination, and there comes the rub.

THE national debt statement for the month of August, shows a further reduction of over $18,000,000. Such Republican arguments carry dismay to the hearts of the Democracy.

NEARLY ALL the Republican members of Congress from Pennsylvania have been re-nominated. The delegation is confessedly one of the strongest in the body.

FALL OF THE FRENCH EMPIRE.

The news from Europe is of a most startling character. The prowess of the Prussian arms and the superiority of the strategic abilities of her Generals, as established in the battles on the Rhenish frontier, have been vindicated in a succession of brilliant victories and terrific battles, culminating in the utter defeat and capitulation of McMahon's fine army, and the personal surrender of the Emperor Napoleon. The French have been out-maneuvered and over-matched from the beginning of the contest. It has been a remarkable campaign, unparalleled in modern history. Less than six weeks ago Louis Napoleon, after forcing a needless quarrel with King William, declared War against Prussia, giving out his purpose to curb the growing power of Germany, and teach humility to Bismarck. Prussia was generally thought to be unprepared for war. France, always intoxicated with the idea of military glory, eagerly took up the quarrel of the Emperor and expected to dictate terms of peace at the Prussian capital. King William, solemnly calling God and the nations to witness that he had desired to avoid war, could do nothing less than accept the guage of battle thus defiantly thrown down, and invoked Germany to his aid. The Germans, thoroughly devoted to the "father-land" and impressed with the conviction that neither Prussia nor Europe could expect permanent peace until France should be taught the duty of nations to mind their own business, rallied with unwonted unanimity and enthusiasm around King William. The result is before us. In a brief campaign of four weeks the French legions have been driven back step by step—Bazaine shut up in Metz—McMahon crushed and forced to surrender—the leading French fortresses beseiged—Louis Napoleon a prisoner—his empire demolished—and the Prussians to-day knocking at the gates of Paris!

There is a measure of retributive justice in the fact that Louis Napoleon has been made to feel in his own person the full force of the blow he so wantonly provoked. After bringing France to the very verge of ruin, squandering her treasure and sacrificing hecatombs of her young men, it would have outraged every sentiment of justice if he had been allowed to escape with impunity. He attained the throne by the most stupendous political fraud that was ever practiced in the history of usurpation; he has left it crowned with more shame and dishonor than ordinarily falls to the lot of even the most graceless pretender.

A Republic has been proclaimed at Paris and a Provisional Government formed. The French are still clamorous for war, and call for new armies to drive back the invader. With her armies in the field effectually crushed—her best Generals either prisoners or killed—it looks like supreme folly to continue the contest. Yet the the trouble with King William will be to find a Government with which to negotiate terms of peace. The French are the most volatile and unsteady people on the continent. To-day they proclaim a Republic. But to-morrow, it may be over-turned, if its acts be unsatisfactory to the people.

THE Valley Spirit is guilty of the folly of charging Hon. JOHN CESSNA with not being a Protective Tariff man, because he voted for Schenck's Tariff bill which fixed the duty on Pig Iron at $7, being a reduction of $2. As all the Protectionists in the House voted for this reduction, Mr. CESSNA was certainly in very good company. The truth is, this reduction was consented to by the Pig Iron Manufacturers, as equitable when considered in connexion with other changes of duties made in the bill; and was resisted only by Free-Traders who struggled to reduce the duty to $5.

There was not in the House last session, a Representative more devoted to Pennsylvania's interests than Mr. CESSNA; and his record is without a flaw.—His enemies are welcome to pick at it, till doomsday.

THE Colored Democracy of Baltimore recently met in mass meeting. Their principal speaker (Waters) avowed himself a Democrat, because Democrats were the real friends of the colored men. In proof, he said that he recently called on Hon. Thomas Swann, Democratic M. C. from Baltimore, who invited him to his parlor and treated him as a gentleman; and he declared that Mr. Swann was in favor of abolishing the distinction maintained in Baltimore of setting apart passenger railway cars for colored people separate from those for white.

THE "White Man's party" is numbered with the things that were in Louisiana. The Democracy of that State have accepted the situation, ignored the negro question and kindred issues, and cordially invite the affiliation of the colored voters, publicly requesting them to take part in their conventions and work for the success of their party. Impartial Suffrage is established, and cannot be reversed. Only fools talk otherwise.

SINCE the nomination of Meyers, the Democracy apparently yield the contest in this district, and are preparing in advance to account for Cessna's election. The Chambersburg Valley Spirit says Mr. Cessna "is about to throw into this Congressional district one hundred thousand dollars to secure his election!" Whew! That would require only twenty years' salary of a member of Congress. Why not make it $200,000?

VERMONT opened the fall campaign on Tuesday last, and, as usual, sends greetings to the Republicans of the Union with an overwhelming triumph. The Republicans sweep the field—Governor, Congress and Legislature, by old fashioned majorities. The Senate will be unanimously Republican, and but 30 Democrats in the House.

Rev. WM. B. RABER, of Mechanicsburg, is the Republican nominee in the York, Cumberland and Perry district. Bratton, of the Carlisle Volunter, is still in the field, and refuses to support Haldeman, the nominee of York and Perry.

THE Democratic crusade against National banks continues. The Michigan Democrats fired the last shot, at their recent State Convention.

Hon. John M. Crebs, Democratic Congressman from Illinois, and a candidate for re-election, has given this "frank and manly" notice to the colored voters of his district: "I do not want the negro to vote the Democratic ticket. Let him stand by his friends. The Republican party gave him all his rights. Let him stand by that party."

The German Roman Catholic Bishops have unanimously resolved never to submit to the action of the Ecumenical Council on the subject of infallibility. Throughout Germany this feeling seems universal among Catholic laymen.

THE PARIS JOURNALS STILL FOR WAR

The news from Europe is important. Terrific fighting on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday between Montmedy and Mezieres, culminated in a great battle under the walls of Sedan, near the Belgian frontier. The French being beaten at all points and surrounded by the Prussians, McMahon's entire army capitulated unconditionally, including the Emperor Napoleon. King William telegraphed the result to the Queen at Brussels in the following terms:

BEFORE SEDAN, FRANCE, September 2, 1:22 P. M.—A capitulation whereby the whole army at Sedan are prisoners of war has just been concluded with General Wimpfen commanding, instead of General McMahon, who is wounded. The Emperor surrendered himself to me, as he has no command and left everything to the regent at Paris. His residence I shall appoint after an interview with him at a rendezvous to be fixed. What a course events, with God's guidance, have taken!

THE END OF THE BATTLE AT SEDAN.

[Special Despatch to the New York Tribune.]

London, September 3.—The special correspondent of the Tribune telegraphs from the King's headquarters at Vendres, near Sedan, Friday, as follows:

The battle at Sedan began at six in the morning on September 1st. Two Prussian Corps were in position on the west of Sedan, having got there by long forced marches, to cut off the French retreat to Mezieres. South of Sedan was the First Bavarian Corps, and east, across the Meuse, the Second Bavarian Corps; the Saxons were on the northeast with the guards. I was with the King throughout the day on a hill above St. Meuse, commanding a splendid view of the Valley of St. Meuse and the field. After a tremendous battle the Prussians, having completely surrounded Sedan, the Bavarians entered the fortifications of Sedan.

The Emperor capitulated at 5:15 P. M. His letter to the King of Prussia said: "As I cannot die at the head of my army, I lay my sword at the feet of your Majesty."

Napoleon left Sedan for the Prussian headquarters at Vendres at 7 o'clock this morning.

McMahon's whole army comprising over one hundred thousand men, capitulated without conditions.

The Prussians had 240,000 men engaged or in reserve, the French 120,000.

[Special to the New York Herald.]

London, September 3.—A special despatch has been received from Sedan, via Bouillon, September 2d, midnight, which says the die is cast so far as McMahon's fine army and the fortunes of the Emperor are concerned. All is over with France. I have already telegraphed briefly the facts of the battles of Tuesday and Wednesday, each day's fighting being terrific. The result at the close of each day was favorable to the Prussians. Thursday, daylight, showed the French force reinforced and occupying a strong elevated position from Bazilles, extending down the railroad to Douzy and thence to Mairy on the line of the Mouzon Railroad. At five o'clock the Prussians recommenced the battle, making simultaneous attacks on the French front and left flank. Fighting at first was confined to artillery, both armies firing incessantly, the French evidently having a weaker force of guns than the Prussians. At noon a fierce attack was made by the Prussian infantry at Douzy, with the object of breaking the French center, but after tremendous fighting the Prussians fell back. A pause seemed to take place at one o'clock, the firing being less incessant, but it was only the prelude of a yet fiercer assault. At two o'clock a simultaneous movement was made along the whole Prussian line, infantry charging the French guns. At three o'clock the French line, which had previously stood firm, wavered, and immediately thereafter broke. The battle then became a rout. McMahon is reported to have been seriously wounded during the last attack.

The roads now presented a terrible aspect. The French left everything, flying in every direction and throwing away their arms. The Prussian forces pressed forward resolutely, bent upon cutting off their retreat towards Belgium.

The Prussian troops used the bayonet with terrible effect. Night closed on the rout and pursuit; leaving the Prussians gathering in large numbers around Sedan.

The Emperor remained at Sedan throughout the battle. At half-past two o'clock a message was sent to the Emperor at his headquarters advising him to fly to Belgium, but the Emperor was too ill to undertake the journey.

This morning the Prussians prepared to attack Sedan, which was not in a condition to resist. At 12 o'clock a party of officers, headed by General Wimpfen, left Sedan, bearing a flag of truce. It was received by the Prussian advance guard and conducted to the rear of the Prussian headquarters, where the General formally surrendered the French army and fortress to King William. The French party also bore a letter from Emperor Napoleon to King William stating he desired to surrender himself, not having any command. Formal capitulation took place at half past one o'clock.

Large numbers of French troops, forced into Belgium during the fight; were disarmed by the Belgian authorities.

REJOICING IN BERLIN.

LONDON, September 3.—A special despatch from Berlin received here to-day says rejoicing over the reception of the glorious news from Sedan baffles description. It was known at eight in the morning. The whole population poured into the streets, and rushed to the palace of the Queen. In a few minutes the Queen came out on the balcony, dressed in a plain morning wrapper, weeping with joy as she received the deafening cheers of the multitude. Hundreds of women went down on their knees with streaming eyes thanking God for the apparent approach of the close of the terrible war. Schools were closed, and processions of children formed in all quarters. Many climed the statue of Frederick the Great, crowning it with wreaths and flags. An impromptu procession of citizens was gotten up, which marched through the streets with banners and music. It is the general belief that France will abandon futher resistance. All financial circles share in the exultation, which is shown by the buoyancy of the market. The people gladly welcome peace on the most generous terms consistent with perfect security against future wars.

REJOICING IN LONDON.

LONDON, September 3.—London is wild with delight over the Prussian triumph. The streets for two hours were filled with excited multitudes. Englishmen congratulate each other as if there had been an English victory. Sympathy with Prussia was never so strongly manifested. News of the surrender was published here by the Daily News in an extra about half past ten o'clock this morning, other papers soon following. Placards were posted everywhere in the streets and thousands of despatches were sent in every direction.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT PARIS.

PARIS, September 4—Midnight.—As the proclamation of the Ministers announcing the capitulation of McMahon's army and the capture of the Emperor becomes known the excitement among the people becomes indescribable. All the evening great crowds have occupied the Place de la Concorde, it being known that a stormy scene had taken place in the Corps Legislatif.

Some of the shops of the more favored purveyors of the Imperial family are menaced and will probably be sacked. In all parts of the city people are painting out and taking down the Imperial arms, fearing an attack by the mob. In the windows of shops where photographs are displayed care has been taken to remove those of the Imperial family and all those connected with them.

THE EMPEROR DEPOSED AND A REPUBLIC PROCLAIMED.

PARIS, Sept. 5.—The excitement during Sunday night was intense. Immense masses of people thronged the street all night. The populace shouted "Vive la Republique," and demanded the deposal of the Emperor by the Corps Legislatif. Early on Monday morning the police charged the crowd, and some citizens were mortally wounded. Throughout the city the Imperial arms have been torn down from buildings and sign-boards, and wherever else they were displayed. General Trochu was called out by the people who were demanding the deposal of the Emperor, but he refused to say anything on the subject. As the hour for the assembling of the Corps Legislatif approached yesterday the citizens marched in immense multitudes towards the hall, renewing their cries for the forfeiture of the throne. The Corps, by a vote of 185 in the affirmative to none in the negative, decreed the throne to be vacant, and the majority (Imperialists) left the hall. The members of the Left and Left Centre remained and organized a Provisional Government, under Jules Favre, Arago, Cremieux, Garnier Pages, Gambetta, Jules Simon, Picard, Peletan, Rochefort, Bozoin and Jules Ferry, all of whom are members of the Radical party in the Corps. Arago, another of the Republican members, has been appointed Mayor of Paris, and Keratry Prefect of Police. Regiments passing into the city and the troops of the National Guard fraternized with the populace and sung "Mourir pour la Patrie." Henri Rocheforte has been released from the prison of St. Pelagie, where the late Emperor had imprisioned him for four months for the crime of freedom of speech, and assisted at the meeting of the Provisional Government at the Hotel de Ville.

The Paris journals without exception urge the nation to make an unyielding defence and declare the dismemberment of France impossible.

PROCLAMATION OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT.

Paris, September 5—[Official]—The following proclamation has been issued by the new Goverment:

REPUBLIQUE FRANCAISE,
MINISTERE D L'INTERIEUR.

The decheance has been pronounced in the Corps Legislatif, and a Repuplic has been proclaimed at the Hotel de Ville. A Goverment of National Defence, composed of eleven members and all Deputies of Paris, has been constituted and ratified by popular acclamation. Their names are Arago, Emanuel, Cremieux, Jules Favre, Jules Ferry, Gambetta, Garnier Pages, Glois Bozoin, Eugene Pelletan, Picard, Rochefort and Jules Simon. General Trochu will at the same time continue to exercise the powers of Governor of Paris and is appointed Minister of War in place of Count Palikao.

Please placard immediately, and if necessary have proclaimed by a public crier this declaration for the Goverment of National Defence.

The Minister of the Interior,
LEON GAMBETTA.
Paris, September 4, 6 P. M.

SACKING OF THE TUILERIES.

A correspondent of the Daily News at Paris says at three o' clock on Sunday afternoon he saw the Palace of the Tuileries invaded by a mob, who tore down the throne, destroyed everything marked with the Imperial bees and Napoleonic insignia and carried away and cast into the Seine all busts, statues and pictures of the Bonapartes. Henry Rochefort was borne in triumph to the Hotel de Ville. In these scenes soldiers fraternized with the people and all shouted "Vive la France," "Vive Commerce." They laughed and wept with joy and embraced one another.

Gen. Trochu has been appointed President of the Provisional Government.

KING WILLIAM'S ACCOUNT OF HIS INTERVIEW WITH NAPOLEON.

BERLIN, September 5.—The following despatch has been received here from the King to the Queen:

"VARENNES, 8 o'clock Sunday Morning. What a thrilling moment that of my meeting with Napoleon. He was dejected, but dignified. I assigned as his place of immediate stay Williamhoh, near Cassel. Our meeting took place at a small country house opposite the western glacis of Sedan. When summoned to it I was inspecting the positions before the place. You must imagine my reception among the troops—it was indescribable. Their exultation was overwhelming. At dusk I ended a five hours' ride, and at one in the morning returned hither. May God aid us further. WILLHELM."

THE PRINCE IMPERIAL ALSO A PRISONER.

The Prince Imperial did not escape into Belgium, as was at first reported, but was captured with the Emperor. The Empress has left Paris to join the Emperor and her son.

Twelve thousand French troops have crossed the Belgian borders and laid down their arms. The total number of prisoners surrendered by McMahon will reach 120,000.

The latest despatches state that the march towards Paris has been resumed, and the Prussian advance was on Sunday night reported to be at St. Quentin, about fifty miles northeast of Paris. The Crown Princes of Prussia and Saxony command the army, and Count Bismarck accompanies them.

CONGRATULATIONS TO PRUSSIA.

BERLIN, September 4.—Congratulatory telegrams from all parts of the world continue to pour in upon the Government. Nearly all of these contain in addition a protest against any foreign interference with the German adjustment of peace.

THE TEXT OF NAPOLEON'S LETTER OF SURRENDER.

The Gaulois gives the following as the text of the letter of Napoleon to the King of Prussia:

"Having no command in the army and having placed all my authority in the Empress as regent, I herewith surrender my sword to the King of Prussia."

RUMORED PROPOSALS OF PEACE.

Wednesday, Sept. 7—The late Emperor Napoleon passed through Cologne yesterday afternoon on his way to Wilhelmslohe, the capital of Hesse, where King William has assigned him a residence for the present. At stations along the railroad there were great crowds of people waiting to see him, but he was treated everywhere with the respect and consideration due a fallen enemy.

Despatches from London state that Jules Favre, the Minster of Foreign Affairs, had made peace proposals to Prussia on the basis of a withdrawal of the Prussian army from French soil, and a guarantee by France that her standing army shall be abolished. It is reported from Paris that Favre has gone forward to meet King William.

The correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from the Prussian headquarters, reports an interview with Bismark, and says that the latter denied that Prussia would demand the cession of Alsace and Lorraine, but would insist on holding Strasbourg and Metz as pledges of peace, and for the protection of the South German States. Another Prussian army of invasion has appeared in the south of France, having crossed the Rhine near the Swiss frontier and advanced towards Mulhause and Neufchateau.

The Prussians are pushing rapidly towards Paris, and the advance is reported to be at Vincy, between there and Chalons, and about sixty-five miles distant from the capital.

LONDON, September 6. — Declarations have already reached Paris from the Foreign Committees of several States of Europe, congratulating France on the peaceful and successful formation of the Republic. Republicans are already leaving London in great numbers for France.

THE LATEST.

THE MARCH TO PARIS.—PRUSSIA REFUSES INTERVENTION.—DEATH OF McMAHON.

THURSDAY, Sept. 8.—To-day's despatches from London and Paris represent the Prussians to be moving on Paris with forced marches. There was great excitement at Paris, with much despondency. The city is doomed unless the French come to terms.

Marshal McMahon has died of his wounds.

The Prince Imperial, Napoleon's son, is in London. The Empress is in Belgium on her road to meet her husband.

There is much distrust at Paris. The mob demands arms, and Trochu refuses. The Orleans Princes will not be allowed to enter Paris.

No news from Metz or Strasbourg.

TO THE MORAL AND CHRISTIAN PEOPLE OF GETTYSBURG.

Last Sunday the incessant clanging of locomotive bells almost drowned the sound of our church bells; and the constant infernal screching of steam seemed intent on blowing away from our recollection the fact that it was the Lord's day and to be kept holy.

As our people were on their way to the house of God, our usually quiet and orderly streets were alive with people of whom the words of the prophet Isaiah (III 9) may aptly be quoted, "The show of their countenance doth witness against them." They were seeking the taverns rather than the churches, and were looking for open shops to traffic in, sorely tempting those who are greedy of gain. Venders of pea-nuts, &c., were seen upon our streets, and I wonder if the barkeepers of town could look you fair in the face and say they kept the law last Sunday!

We are threatened with another and greater invasion of the Barbarians next Sunday.

Now we all have read the fable of the camel that asked admission for his nose only—but when that was allowed, his whole body soon followed, and it was too large to put out. If in our case it were only a camel, we need not be much alarmed; but in reality it is the "roaring lion," of whom St. Peter speaks as going about "seeking whom he may devour," that is raiding upon us, and, if we do not resist his first attempts, we may expect to be overrun by all his destroying power. Our authorities, doubtless, would not allow Van Amburgh to let all his Menagrie loose in our streets; but that were far better and less dangerous than this irruption.

Now it behooves you to whom this is addressed—among whom I class myself—to call upon our town authorities and our Railroad authorities to protect us and prevent the recurrence of such desecration of a day we have been used to enjoy quietly, according to the commandment and our privilege.

The keeping holy of the Lord's day by abstinence from labor and noisy demonstrations, from buying and selling and getting gain, is a part of Christianity, and Christianity, as any lawyer, who knows his business, will tell you, is part of the Common Law of Pennsylvania.

I therefore call upon you as you love your God, your families and our community, to join me in calling upon our authorities to enforce the laws we have and enact others that may be necessary, to defend us from this great and increasing trespass upon our rights, privileges and safe guards!

Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty; and it is high time our moral and Christian people arouse to the dangers with which "the root of all evil, the love of money", is threatening us. H. L. B.

NEWS OF NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

CUMBERLAND.—The barn of John Nickey, Frankford township, was struck by lightning on the 29th ult., and burned.—Jacob Hemp, near New Kingston, had his leg crushed on the 29th ult. by a horse power, requiring amputation above the knee.—A ruffian, named Mike McCarty, has been committed to the Carlisle jail, on the charge of attempting to commit a rape on Mary Ann Althouse, aged 13 years.—John Early, a respectable citizen of Carlisle, while in Inhoff's store last week, suddenly fell down dead, from apoplexy.

FRANKLIN.—A "quack doctor," named J. W. Bechtel, formerly of Franklin county, was last week arrested and committed to jail at Harrisburg for producing an abortion and causing the death of Lillie Mason, a girl aged about 18 years. The scoundrel was committed to prison upon the dying confession of the girl.

YORK.—On the night of the 29th ult., the out kitchen of Mrs. Amanda Forry, in Heidelberg township, was entered by burglars, who stole a lot of towels, dishes, tablecloths, and knives.—Jacob Elcock has been appointed Postmaster at Siddousburg, vice Joseph Elcock resigned.—The population of York is 11,015, not including Freystown and Bottstown.

WASHINGTON.—John French, son of George French, of Hagerstown, died last week of voluntary starvarion. He had become thoroughly imbued with spiritualistic notions, and his reason gave way. Two months ago he conceived it his duty to fast 40 days and 40 nights. During that period no argument or stratagem availed to shake his resolution, absolutely refusing food. At the end of 40 days he was reduced to a skeleton, and his system so depressed that all efforts to recuperate it by nourishing food failed. He died on the 3rd inst.—Last week, near Sharpsburg, the lightning struck a tree, under which a lad named Charles Durr, aged 12 years, had taken shelter. The electric fluid passed from the tree into his neck, passing down his back, twisted itself twice around one of his legs, and passing out at the sole of his foot, but not before it had broken the bones of the same. The lad had in his arms, at the time of the stroke, a small dog, and another was crouching at his feet, both of which were killed. The boy was unable to reach his home without assistance, and was not found until about 10 o'clock at night. He is slowly recovering.

TO THE NERVOUS.

The natural result of exhaustion of strength by excessive labor or action, is a feeling of weakness, dullness, heaviness, weariness, languor of body or mind, &c. Persons of a weak constitution, or whose habits are sedentary, frequently complain of this relaxed condition of the vital energies; and when persons of a nervous temperament are thus weakened and debilitated, disease inevitably follows, unless it is at once checked and overcome. All who suffer from these causes alike require a remedy which will strengthen the system without exciting it, and awake a feeling of true enjoyment, so that life may become a source of pleasure. MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS has won its way into the confidence of thousands of this class of persons, who warmly endorse it as the best invigorating agent, and the most potent and genial of all tonics and alteratives for strengthening and restoring the physical constitution. MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

The Society invites the exhibition of any and everything that may be useful or convenient in the practice of Agriculture or Horticulture, or be the product of either; all articles and implements of convenience or use in the domestic or social life, or of all the products of art and skill, and for all such things of merit although not enumerated in the foregoing list, premiums or diplomas may be awarded.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

All Articles and Animals for Exhibition must be properly entered at the Business office. The Grounds and Buildings will be opened on Monday the 26th of September, to receive them; and trusty persons employed by the Society will assign them places and guard the grounds. Articles shipped beforehand will be properly cared for.

No entry for competition will be made after Tuesday; nor can anything entered be removed from the grounds till the close of the Fair, without permission of the President.

The Judges are requested to present themselves at the Business Office, at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Wednesday, and to report their awards to the Secretary before 12 o'clock, M., on Thursday.

Articles and animals can only be entered to compete in one class, and no one can have two premiums awarded to it.

During the examination of horses, no person excepting those having charge of the stock, judges and officers attending to their duties, will, under any pretence or excuse, be admitted within the ring.

Hay, straw and water will be supplied free of charge, for all animals entered for premiums; and grain will be provided at the lowest cost price, for those who desire to purchase.

All articles and animals entered for exhibition free of charge.

All awarded premiums uncalled for, for thirty days after the close of the Fair, shall be deemed donated to the Society.

Premiums shall not be awarded when the animal or article is deemed unworthy.

All articles must be marked with cards, which will be furnished by the Secretary, designating class and number; and these cards must not be removed until after the Awarding Committees have finished their examinations.

The Executive Committee will take every possible precaution for the safe keeping of all articles on exhibition, after their arrival and arrangements, but the Society will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. They desire exhibitors to give personal attention to their animals or articles, and at the close of the Fair attend to their removal.

No animal or article shall be taken out of the Fair Grounds without the leave of the President.

Exhibitors are expected to obey the Marshals promptly in producing their stock, when instructed to do so; and any person proving refractory will be ruled out from competing.

No animal or article will be assigned a place on the grounds until the entries are made, as the regulations of the Society require.

Persons renting refreshment booths will not be permitted to sell intoxicating drinks.

Any person found intoxicated upon the Fair Grounds, or acting in a disorderly manner, shall be immediately ejected from the grounds.

A prompt and severe example will be made of any fraudulent use of Admission Tickets.

Any person attempting to interfere with the judges, in their adjudications, will be promptly excluded from competition.

Should any doubt arise as to the regularity of the entry, or any other important matter, which the committee feel incompetent to decide, they may at once report the same to the President.

YOUNT'S COMPOUND

or any other Inflammatory or inward disease of the Throat if not of too long standing. Also, SCARLET FEVER. This medicine has been tried in in different parts of the country, and it has never been known to fail if taken in time and according to directions. It is warranted to cure. Give it a trial and it will speak for itself. Every household should provide themselves with a box of this medicine and keep it on hand. The cures that it has effected are truly marvelous.

☞ The Republican County Committee will meet at the Eagle Hotel, in Gettysburg, on Saturday Sept. 10, at 1 o'clock, P. M., for the transaction of important business.

SALES.—Mr. Hezekiah Latshaw has sold his farm, in Franklin township, to Henry Biesecker—151 acres, at $10,000.

DON'T FORGET—the Festival of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in Agricultural Hall, now in progress. It will be open Thursday and Friday evenings.

☞ Daniel Geiselman, of Union township, while attending Van Amburg's menagerie in Hanover last week, was robbed of twenty some dollars by an expert pickpocket.

CAMP-MEETING.—The colored Camp-Meeting, now in progress in Wolf's woods, east of town, has been well attended, and good order preserved. It will be continued until Monday night.

PIC-NIC.—There will be a Basket Pic-Nic and Cottillon Party at Jacob Bollinger's grove, two miles west of Harney, Md., near the Littlestown and Emmittsburg road, on Saturday the 17th inst.

FINE TOMATOES.—Mrs. Wm. C. Stallsmith, of this place, sends us a lot of decidedly the largest and best developed Tomatoes we have seen this season. One weighs two pounds—all of them being unusually large and well formed.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Messrs. Peter Penner, Thomas McKinney and Charles Heller have each erected a two-story log dwelling house in Menallen township, and Mr. Michael Black has enlarged and improved his. Messrs. Amos Schlosser and Thomas Sillik have put up additions to their barns.

PUBLISHED.—We observe among recent publications one by Rev. Dr. Schmucker of this place, on the True Unity of Christ's Church. It has referrence to the World's Evangelical Alliance. It is a duodecimo volume, 262 pages, and is published by A. D. F. Randolph, New York, at $1.25.

TAKE YOUR OWN PAPER.—A contemporary very justly remarks that every Republican ought to take his own county paper. If he loves Republican principles he surely can afford four cents a week to spread them. The cost of a paper is no excuse for not taking one. There is not a week passes but that five times four cents are spent foolishly, which might have been much better invested in a newspaper. Two dollars a year invested in a newspaper buys more reading matter than twenty dollars will purchase in the shape of books. A man may read books all his life, but if he fails to read the papers, he may be called ignorant. Without a newspaper a man is virtually out of the world.

CENSUS ITEMS.—Dr. George H. Jordy sends us the following statistics of his district:

Berwick Borough.—Dwellings 80; families 85; farms 28; white males 145, white females 179, colored female 1—total population 325. Deaths during the year 4.

Berwick township.—Dwellings 103; families 106; farms 76; white males 249, females 258—total 507. Deaths 7.

Hamilton Township.—Dwellings 225; families 252; farms 151; white males 538, white females 582—total 1120. Deaths 12.

Oxford Township.—Dwellings 258; families 271; farms 113; white males 661, white females 655, colored males 3, colored females 3—total 1322. Deaths 15.

Berwick borough and township had a population of 869 in 1860—loss in ten years 37. Hamilton township had 1435 in 1860—loss 315. Oxford had 1201 in 1860—gain 121.

UNRIVALLED YET.—"Blood will tell!" say the horse fanciers, in estimating the endurance of a fine animal; and the motto is a good one, outside of the sporting world. A pure article—intrinsically good—must distance all competition, eventually. The success of Udolpho Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps has induced the the manufacture of an hundred imitations; but in the unrivalled sale of his manufacture, while others have achieved if at all but a scanty success—may be found the public appreciation of a pure and wholesome beverage. 1t

"THEIR NAME IS LEGION," may be applied to those who die annually of Consumption, although science has of late years sensibly diminished their number. It is gratifying to know that the general use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry is largely instrumental in attaining this end.

EAST BERLIN, Sept. 5, 1870.

EDITORS STAR AND SENTINEL:—About 2 months ago the "Junior Red Stocking" Base Ball club was formed at East Berlin. A few weeks ago a challenge was sent by the "Dexter" club of New Oxford, and a match game played at East Berlin, the Dexters winning the game by a score of 17 to 6. Last Saturday the "Junior Red Stockings" went to New Oxford and played a match game with the "Dexters" with the following result:

Scorers—C. Sheely and Jas. Swartz.

The Red Stockings won the game by 8 runs and white-washed the Dexters on the 6th and 7th innings. Good for East Berlin. Though behind the age in some things—not in all.

The Red Stockings returned home about 9 o'clock P. M., as merry as they could be, enlivening the town by the music of

"Shoo fly—don't eat my grub;
To-day we beat the Dexter club!"

DEATH OF PROF. STŒVER—ACTION OF COLLEGE FACULTY.

WHEREAS, it has pleased God, in His wise Providence, to call to Himself our esteemed colleague, Prof. M. L. STŒVER, LL. D., who in the various capacities of Tutor, Principal of the Preparatory Department, Professor of History, and Professor of the Latin Language and Literature, and Secretary of the Faculty, has been connected with Pennsylvania College for thirty years: therefore,

Resolved, That, in this sad affliction, we recognize the kind hand of Him who doeth all things well, satisfied that, through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, our colleague rests in peace.

Resolved, That whilst we thus bow in submission to the Divine will, we, at the same time, express our heartfelt sorrow at the loss which we have sustained, and our tender sympathy with his bereaved family in their affliction.

Resolved, That whilst we mourn over his unexpected death, we, at the same time, thank our Heavenly Father for his life.

Resolved, That we hereby record our sincere appreciation of the valuable services which for so many years he rendered Pennsylvania College, as an earnest and devoted friend, and a laborious and self-sacrificing worker, who gave to the Institution the best years of his life, and a zeal in our common interests, which was made all the more valuable by his long experience as a member of the Faculty, and his accurate acquaintance with the history of the College.

Resolved, That his uniform courtesy as a Christian gentleman, and his conscientious discharge of all the duties devolving upon him as a member of the Faculty, will ever be cherished by his associates and former pupils, among the objects of their most grateful recollection.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon our minutes, be published in the papers of the church and town, and that a copy be transmitted to the family of the deceased.

By order of the Faculty,
H. LOUIS BAUGHER, Sec'y.

YORK SPRINGS, Aug. 30, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—The Oak Ridge Union Sabbath School, Dr. J. H. Marsden and A. B. Walker, Superintendents, held their annual celebration in J. B. Millat's Grove, on Saturday last. They marched from the School House with banners flying, accompanied by the Franklintown Brass Band, to the grove, where seats and stands had been prepared. Much praise is due the energetic citizens who so tastefully decorated the woods. The great attraction for this jubilant procession was the wagon loads of cakes, fruits, and substantials. Able addresses were delivered by the Rev. Dr. J. H. Marsden, Rev. J. B. Jones, Rev. Mr. McClure, and the Rev. Mr. Anthony. To sum up the result of this day's enjoyment in a few words we must say that old and young were pleased and satisfied. One is surprised to see how easily the large number of children present were controlled—how harmonious all their plans—so that nothing occured to mar the day's pleasure. This is a striking feature in all our Sunday School celebrations, and proves the power of that love which unites the hearts of Teacher and Scholar, and makes the Sunday School such an efficient agency in developing all the better feelings of our poor humanity. May the cause prosper till every child is under this precious influence, is the wish of one who enjoyed very much this most enjoyable occasion and wants an invitation next year.

His stock of Straw Hats embraces all styles, qualities, and prices. ap22-tf

SAVE MONEY.—Pending the agitation of the Funding Bill, which will evidently depreciate Government Bonds, persons would do well by reading the advertisement of the "Gettysburg National Bank," in another column, and exchange their Government Bonds and realize a handsome profit thereby, and obtain an investment as safe and profitable.

Sale of the Gettysburg Railroad.

IN the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania for the Eastern District, in Equity.
GEORGE SWOPE et al
vs.
THE GETTYSBURG RAILROAD COMPANY et al.

Whereas, The Gettysburg Railroad Company, by mortgage, dated May 22, 1857, and duly recorded, did grant and assign unto GEORGE SWOPE, his successors and assigns, the railroad of said Company from its eastern terminus in the town of Hanover, in the county of York, through the town of New Oxford, and the borough of Gettysburg, and west-ward near the town of Waynesburg, in the county of Franklin, to the further western terminus at the line of the State of Maryland, at or near the town of Middleburg, in the county of Franklin, State of Pennsylvania, with all the corporate franchises and appurtenances of said Gettysburg Railroad Company, together with the locomotive engines and cars, lands and tenements, tolls, revenues, rights and privileges, whatsoever thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining, to have and to hold the said railroad and receive and take all and singular the estate and premises, hereditaments and appurtenances thereby granted or intended to be, with the lomotives, &c., unto the said GEORGE SWOPE and his successors in the trust, nevertheless for the benefit of the holders of the bonds of the Company, to the amount of $200,000.

And whereas, by a decree entered by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in the above entitled case, it was declared that said mortgage was a first lien upon the railroad, tolls, franchises, property, income, estates, and premises therein mentioned, and it was ordered that, on default being made by the Gettysburg Railroad Company, in the payment of the bonds with coupons attached, within the period fixed by the said decree, the railroad property, estates, premises, appurtenances, and franchises conveyed by the said mortgage, should be exposed to sale by public vendue or outcry, as one entire lot, in the city of Philadelphia, by the said GEORGE SWOPE, to whom all needful authority for that purpose was thereby given upon the terms and conditions therein mentioned and hereinafter set forth.—And whereas, default has been made by the Gettysburg Railroad Company in the payment as aforesaid. Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that, under and by virtue of said decree, GEORGE SWOPE, therein named, will, on THURSDAY, the 13th day of October, A. D. 1870, at 12 o'clock, expose to public sale, by public vendue or outcry, the whole of the railroad, together with the lands, rights of way, bridges, culverts, trestlework, machinery, depots, grounds, and buildings situate thereon, and also all the tolls, issues, income, profits, rights, privileges, and franchises, and also, all the cars, engines, locomotives, tenders, or other things used in the business or management of said railroad and its appurtenances, at the Merchants Exchange in the city of Philadelphia.

The railway above described is situated in the counties of Adams and York, Pennsylvania, and begins at the town of Hanover, in York county, and extends to Gettysburg, in the county of Adams, a distance of sixteen and half miles.

TERMS OF SALE.

The property will be struck off to the highest and best bidder upon his signing the conditions of sale. Ten thousand dollars to be paid in cash, and the balance in thirty days thereafter.

When the purchase money shall have been paid, and the sale confirmed by the Court, the said GEORGE SWOPE will execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers, sufficient deed or deeds conveying the premises unto him or them in fee simple.
GEORGE SWOPE, Trustee.

ROSADALIS

THE GREAT AMERICAN HEALTH RESTORER, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your ROSADALIS as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. M'Fadden, Murfresboro', Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

P. O. Box 5643. NEW YORK. Sept. 9, 1870-4w

MINNESOTA:

Its Resources and Progress—Its Beauty, Healthfulness and Fertility, and Its Attractions and Advantages as a Home for Immigrants—A New Book Free of Cost, compiled from official sources and published by direction of Governor Horace Austin.

In a convenient and readable form it exhibits the inducements offered by Minnesota to persons seeking new homes, and includes official statistics illustrative of the marvellous growth and development of that young, vigorous and healthy state.

Other publications to attract Immigrants usually deal in indiscriminate puffery and grossly exagerated statements. This gives a candid exhibit of facts, derived chiefly from the State Bureau of Statistics, and otherwise supported by scientific and disinterested testimony of the most incontestible character.

After a short geographical and historical sketch, showing the central position of the state and the events of its young history, follows a description of its beauty and fertility from the testimony of high military and literary authorities; an exhibit of mineral resources; a description of its beautiful lakes, rivers, timber, game and fish; a dissertation on the climate, illustrating its marvellous healthfulness and adaptability to agriculture; shows how the cultivated area grew from 1,900 acres in 1850 to 1,600,000 acres in 1869, with a surplus of 14,000,000 bushels of wheat for export; gives tables of comparison, proving officially that Minnesota excels Iowa and Ohio in her average product of wheat, and all other staples except corn; shows a more ample and effectual water power than all New England, and that, while not a tithe of this power is yet used, the extent and value of manufactures have increased 215 per cent. in nine years.

The book also shows the value and importance of the lumbering interest, commercial resources and progress, navigation, railroads constructed and projected, including the Northern Pacific—already energetically pushed forward—the amazing development of common schools from thirteen districts, five school houses and 250 scholars in 1851, to 2,521 districts, 1,920 school houses and 102,086 scholars in 1869—progress in population in which the State is shown to have outstripped all her sisters. Due attention is given to political and social institutions, government, taxation, value of property, distribution of wealth, improvement of farms, exemption laws, law of descent, legal practice, statistics of charitable institutions, poor, post offices, newspapers, religion, Sunday Schools, Masons, Odd Fellows, &c.

It concludes with a chapter on "Public Lands, how and where to get them," shows the amount of unoccupied lands, how to obtain "free farms," gives the location of the government land offices, describes the different classes of public lands and the several modes and cost of obtaining them under the homestead laws, by pre-emption, &c., with suggestions as to the manner and cost of starting farms, when to commence, what money can do, what pluck and muscle may do—wages, employment, and who should come to the State—affording, in short, all such information as emigrants most need.

Part of the edition is accompanied with an excellent map, showing the character of the different localities, &c.

This book will be sent to any address in America or Europe, free of postage or other expense, on application to E. PAGE DAVIS, Commissioner of Immigration for the State of Minnesota, No. 156 Broadway, New York, where all information in regard to the State will be cheerfully given. Sept. 9, 1870-4w

DODGE'S PATENT REAPER AND MOWER

AND SELF RAKER.

THIS machine has met with the most complete success. In every section where it has been introduced, it has taken precedence over those machines which have heretofore ranked as first-class. It is a perfect Self-Raker and a superior Mower.
A careful examination will convince any one of its superior merits over all others, in simplicity, strength and durability. As a Self-raking Reaper it has no equal to our knowledge.
The Dodge rake is attached to no other machine in the United States, except to this machine.—Built by the DODGE & STEVENSON Manufacturing Co., Auburn, New York.

READ THE NOTICE OF THE COMPANY TO OUR AGENTS:

Having been informed that certain manufacturers in Ohio and elsewhere are building Reapers, with DODGE'S SELF-RAKE attached, we ask you to furnish us the names of all persons vending or purchasing such machines, as we have never licensed any person or persons to manufacture said SELF-RAKE, or any part thereof, and will prosecute to the full extent of the law all persons manufacturing, selling or using said Self-rake except of our own manufacture.
JOHN A. DODGE, President.
We have that confidence in this machine that we are willing to let those wanting a machine test it with any other machine they may wish, and keep the one that gives the most satisfaction.
Farmers wanting Droppers attached can be accommodated.
For the benefit of those wanting machines we should refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold, viz:

HOW TO CURE

CONSUMPTION!!

THE PHILOSOPHY OF DR. SCHENCK'S GREAT MEDICINES.—Will people never learn to know that a diseased liver and stomach necessarily disease the entire system? The plainest Principles of common sense teach this, and yet there are hundreds who ridicule the idea, and continue in the course which almost inevitably brings them permaturely to the grave. Living as the majority of the people do, at complete variance with the laws of nature, it must be apparent to all that, sooner or later, nature will revenge herself. Hence we find that persons who indulge to excess in the use of very rich or indigestible food or intoxicating drinks, invariably pay a heavy penalty in the end. The stomach becomes disordered and refuses to act; the liver fails to perform its functions, dyspepsia and its attendant evils follow, and still the suffering individuals persist in clinging to the thoroughly exploded ideas of the past. Dr. Schenck's medicines are recommended to all such. They bring sure and certain relief wherever they are used as directed, and all that is necessary to establish their reputation with every ailing man or woman in the land is a fair and impartial trial of them. Let those who are skeptical on this point, and who have permitted interested persons to prejudice them against these now celebrated remedies for Consumption, discard their prejudices, and be governed by the principles of reason and common sense. If the system is disordered depend upon it, in nine cases out of ten the seat of disorder will be found in the stomach and liver. To cleanse and invigorate the stomach and to stimulate the liver to healthy action, use

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS.—The daily increasing demand for these pills is the best evidence of their value. Thousands upon thousands of boxes are sold daily. Why? Simply because they act promptly and efficiently. Invalids who may not find it convenient to call on Dr. Schenck in person are informed that full and complete directions for use accompany each package of the MANDRAKE PILLS, PULMONIC SYRUP AND SEAWEED TONIC.—These medicines will cure consumption unless the lungs are so far gone that the patient is entirely beyond the reach of medical relief.

It may be asked by those who are not familiar with the virtues of these great remedies, "How do Dr. Schenck's medicines effect their wonderful cures of consumption?"

The answer is a simple one. They begin their work of restoration by bringing the stomach, liver and bowels into an active healthy condition. It is food that cures this formidable disease.—SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS act on the liver and stomach, promoting healthy secretion, and removing the bile and slime which have resulted from the inactive or torpid condition of these organs, and of the system generally. This sluggish state of the body, and the consequent accumulation of the unhealthy substances named prevent the proper digestion of food, and, as a natural consequence creates disease, which results in prostration and finally in death.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP and SEAWEED TONIC, when taken regularly, mingle with the food, aid the digestive organs, make good rich blood, and as a natural consequence, give flesh and strength to the patient. Let the faculty say what it may, this is the only true cure for consumption. Experience has proved it beyond the shadow of a doubt, and thousands are to-day alive and well who a few years since were regarded as hopeless cases, but who were induced to try Dr. Schenck's remedies, and were restored to permanent health by their use.

One of the first steps the physician should take with a consumptive patient is to invigorate the system. Now how is this to be done? Certainly not by giving medicines that exhaust and enervate—medicines that impair instead of improve the functions of the digestive organs. Dr. Schenck's medicines cleanse the stomach and bowels of all substances which are calculated to irritate or weaken them. They create an appetite—promote healthful digestion—make good blood, and, as a consequence, they invigorate and strengthen the entire system, and more especially those parts which are diseased. If this cannot be done, then the case must be regarded as a hopeless one.

If the physician finds it impossible to make a PATIENT FEEL HUNGRY, if the diseased person cannot partake of good nourishing food and properly digest it, it is impossible that he can gain flesh and strength; and it is equally impossible to bring a patient to this condition so long as the liver is burdened with diseased bile, and the stomach laden with unhealthy slime.

Almost the first request made to the physician by a consumptive patient is that he will prescribe medicines that will remove or allay the cough, night sweats and chills, which are the sure attendants on consumption. But this should not be done, as the cough is only an effort of nature to relieve itself, and the night sweats and chills are caused by the diseased lungs. The remedies ordinarily prescribed do more harm than good.—They impair the functions of the stomach, impede healthy digestion, and aggravate rather than cure the disease.

There is, after all, nothing like facts with which to substantiate a position, and it is upon facts that Dr. Schenck relies. Nearly all who have taken his medicines in accordance with his directions have not only been cured of consumption, but, from the fact that these medicines act with wonderful power upon the digestive organs, patients thus cured speedily gain flesh. Cleansing the system of all impurities, they lay the foundation for a solid, substantial structure. Restoring these organs to health, they create an appetite. The food is properly assimilated; the quantity of blood is not only increased, but is made rich and strong and in the face of such a condition of the system all disease must be banished.

Full directions accompany each of the medicines, so that it is not absolutely necessary that patients should see Dr. Schenck personally, unless they desire to have their lungs examined. For this purpose he is at his principle office, No. 15 North Sixth St., corner of Commerce, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 6 A. M., until 1 P. M.

Advice is given without charge, but for a thorough examination with the Respirometer the charge is $5.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each, $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. [June 10, 1870—1y

MANHOOD

IN THE YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scene of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain; the parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, for Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sudden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

> "With woeful measures wan Despair
> Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of Chemistry for the removal of the consequences. HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT OF BUCHU. There is no tonic like it. It is an anchor of hope to the surgeon and patient, and this is a testimony of all who have used or prescribed it.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere.—Price $1.25 per bottle, or six bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.
